

Golf Québec will be funding three players representing it in the Canadian Women's Senior Championship. They will be allotted up to $1333 each in reimbursement for eligible expenses. To obtain these funding, players will have to send receipts of their expenses to Golf Québec.

Here is a list of expenses that will be eligible for reimbursement (see conditions below):

1. Championship registration fee
2. Lodging
3. Travelling
4. Meals

REGISTRATION:

Each player will be responsible to register in the Canadian Women's Senior Championship.

Tournament information

LODGING:

Each participant will make his own reservations.

TRAVELLING:

Each player will have the option of travelling with the mode of transportation she desires and make her own reservations when applicable. The player will have to submit her receipts to receive funding.

MEALS:

There will no longer be any per diem for team meals. Players will have to submit receipts for each individual meal. If you are travelling with someone else, please ask for individual receipts in order to receive funding.

EQUIPMENT:

All team members representing Golf Québec at the Canadian Women's Amateur Championship will be given two Golf Québec shirts and a golf bag. The Team Golf Québec members will have to wear this official team attire during the team competition. Please note that Golf Québec will no longer pay for any alteration to any piece of clothing, if needed.

ADDITIONAL PERSON:

If a player decides to bring another person at the Canadian Women's Amateur Championship, none of this person's expenses will be eligible for reimbursement. Golf Québec will not be responsible for any reservation (hotel, flight, etc.) for this additional person.

Please submit all eligible receipts to Michèle Raymond at the Golf Québec head office in order to receive funding:

Fax: 514 252-3146 / E-mail: mraymond@golfquebec.org

Mail : 4545, Pierre-De Coubertin, Montréal, QC, H1V 0B2