VOLUNTEERS

Happy International Volunteer Day!

The International Volunteer Day (IVD) celebrates volunteerism worldwide. It is held annually, on December 5, to draw attention to the great work done by volunteers around the world. Our community would simply be a different place without you and would certainly lack the human warmth that you bring to our communities. THANK YOU!

2021 Volunteer of the Year

Golf Québec is celebrating the International Volunteer Day by honouring Roch Couture as its 2021 Volunteer of the Year.

Since 1998, Roch is devoted to the development of junior golf and advancement of our sport. In appreciation of all these years, a plaque will be presented to Roch at the Annual General Meeting of Golf Québec to be held on February 28, 2022. Read more.

International Volunteer Day

A successful 2021 season, thanks to you!

Today, Golf Québec would like to thank you for contributing to the success of the 2021 season. Thanks to your daily support, we were able to provide our member clubs and golfers with top-quality services, activities and programs. THANK YOU!

Tonight, to celebrate the 36th edition of the International Volunteer Day, the tower of the Olympic Stadium and Niagara Falls will be illuminated in blue, green and white for a second year. You will have the opportunity to admire this show all night long, if you are driving through Montréal, or to witness the illumination of the Falls, live, from 10:00 p.m. to 10:15 p.m.

Volunteer Story Contest

UQÀM's Faculty of Communication is holding a volunteer storytelling contest. Until December 15, they are collecting volunteer stories, in French and English, that took place during the COVID-19 pandemic.

- How did the pandemic transform your involvement?
- How did you maintain a connection with those you were helping?
- Did you make any discoveries that you would like to share?

Stories will be published and Renaud-Bray gift cards will be distributed as a compensation.
