News in brief

New Guide to Better Work-Life Balance

Historically, work-life balance has been the responsibility of the individual, not the employer. The demographic changes of recent decades and the arrival of women in the workforce have changed this perception. A transition is currently underway and increasingly work-life balance is seen as a shared responsibility between individuals and employers.

To facilitate women's access to sports and promote a better work-life balance, Egale Action presents its brand new Guide for a Better Work-Life Balance (in French). Download it today! It's free!
